

The Weeder's Digest: October 2017

“ Adopt the pace of nature; her secret is patience.” ( R. W. Emerson)

Old Business: Endless Summer has come and gone. We did fairly well at our kiosk, with very happy customers who bought our wares. The opportunity drawing winners were extremely pleased with their prizes:

(1.) A gardening basket full of essential items for starting out.
(2.) A huge “date night” basket filled with yummy goodies, wine and glasses, infused oil and infused vinegar made by member Judy Dorner, a movie gift certificate, etc

(3.) A gorgeous floral arrangement made by Marge Sullivan.

I thank all who contributed to this great success!!!!

New Business:

October 25, 2017.....GCFM Fall Conference (all day)

Held at the Boxborough Regency Inn and Conference Center. I will be going, and club will pay for one other to go. All others may go, but will have to pay ticket price. Check the Mayflower for details. I have registration forms, $55....posted by Oct 16th. No late registrations or walk-ins on day of mtg.

October 26-28, 2017.....Landscape Design School

Sponsored by the Mass Horticultural Society. If interested,

Contact: Maureen O'Brian, Chair....email: greenscapes@hotmail.com

November 8, 2017.... GCFM High Tea Fundraiser

Milford MA, registration at 9:30 am, includes Luncheon and program.

Check Mayflower page 10 for details. Donation $60.

November 13, 2017....., 3 Design Workshops, at

Elm Bank in Wellesley, MA. Three design classes ( Nov, Jan, and April)

Looks like fun, cost is $140 for all three classes, but if you cannot attend on any day, another member may take your place. You get to keep the arrangements you make. See page 8 in the Mayflower for application hurry, as is on first come basis. Only 90 people accepted.

MORE TO COME IN NOVEMBER....FOUR MEMBER DESIGNERS

